Alyshia Handley & Kaitlyn Wynyard-Debben

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that along with the children, you have all enjoyed the packed week of events with the Variety Show, Sports Day, Yr 2 Performance.... and still more to come with the Disco, Year 1 & 2 Blue Reef trip, Year 6 Tea Party and next week our special Leavers' Service.

The pictures below give a small flavour of the events! Miss Kim Wilcox, Headteacher

Variety Show

What talent, confidence and courage our young people have! It was a fantastic evening and the children can be extremely proud of their performances and hard work organizing and producing the show.

School Sports Day

Again the sun shone and all the children were brilliant! Well done to Buzzard House for being the overall winners.

Year 2 “There’s a Sunflower in my Supper”
 Really well done to all of Year 2 who performed their musical brilliantly! The performance was linked to their topic on Life Cycles

News from the Friends of Western Downland
 An amazing £669 was raised at the Variety Show and Sports day ! THANK YOU to everyone who baked or bought cakes and teas and coffees.

Letters/Notices this week...
 - Ofsted report

Reminders
 Leavers’ Service at St Andrew’s Church, Rockbourne on Tuesday 25th July. ALL children to be taken to Rockbourne for registration in the morning.

School Lunch News

Next Tuesday, for the last day of term, there will be no school packed lunches available. Instead there will be an extra option of pizza; so the options will be - Roast pork (red), tomato pasta (green) or pizza (blue).
 There will be no school packed lunches in September - changing back to jacket potatoes as the blue option. (See attached PDF for details).
 Dinner bills have gone out today – please ensure that all accounts are paid up to date by Tuesday.

Community News

a purple/grey/blue camping chair was left on the field at the end of the Variety show - has anyone picked it up by mistake or put it somewhere safe? Please let either school office know if you have seen it. Thank you

Fordingbridge Food Bank

- If you feel that you will be unable to feed your family adequately over the Summer Holiday period, when there are no free school meals, Fordingbridge Foodbank may be able to help you. Whether or not you usually benefit from free school meals, should you find yourself in need of food vouchers during the school holidays they are available from the Fordingbridge Surgery, the Information Centre in Fordingbridge, the CAB and Church Offices alongside the United Reform Church (opposite Caxton Décor), local churches and by telephone from Social Services children's team, Totton. The Foodbanks at Fordingbridge, Ringwood and Verwood will be open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
